April 2011

Newsletter

- The 2011 Riding Season is upon us, and new bikes and old bikes have come out of storage and showrooms to transport their riders to new sights with new freedom. For example:
- Don't forget the Fox Valley Cycles Open House this Saturday from 9:00AM-4:00PM. If you signed up for a job and a timeslot, don't forget that either.
- The first ride of the year was a big success with warmer than expected temperatures, no rain and seven bikes. It was all due, of course, to Eddie's planning. A few folks had enough energy to take a second ride to Starved Rock . . . I guess that was a test run for the ride next Sunday.

President's Message

There is something ugly about a
NEW bike on a trailer.
